

The Compiler.

OUR FLAG!

H. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 17, 1864.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINATIONS.

For President,

MAJOR GENERAL

GEO. BRINTON MCCLLELLAN,

OF NEW JERSEY.

For Vice President,

GEORGE H. PENDLETON,

OF OHIO.

ELECTORS.

ROBERT L. JOHNSTON,

RICHARD VAUX,

WILLIAM L. GILLIN,

EDWARD R. HUBBARD,

EDWARD P. DUNN,

THOMAS McCULLOUGH,

EDWARD L. HESS,

PHILIP S. GERHARD,

GEORGE G. LEIPER,

MICHAEL SEITZER,

PATRICK McEVY,

THOMAS H. WALKER,

OLIVER S. DIMMICK,

ABRAM B. DUNNING,

PAUL KELDY,

ROBERT SWINEFORD,

JOHN A. SMITH,

THADDEUS BANKS,

HUGH MONTGOMERY,

JOHN M. IRVINE,

JOSEPH M. THOMPSON,

KESSELAS BROWN,

JAMES P. BARR,

WILLIAM J. KUNTZ,

WILLIAM MONTGOMERY.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, No. 612 CHURCH ST., PHILADELPHIA, October 13, 1864.

Returns from the election held on Tuesday last have come in so abundantly, sufficient to prove beyond question, that we have triumphed in the State by a majority of seven to ten thousand of the home votes. The votes of the soldiers in the hospitals, and in the army, may or may not, reduce this aggregate.

We congratulate you on this glorious result! All honor to the noble and faithful men who have achieved such a victory. In spite of the frowns of power, the corruption of money, and the influence of a blind and unscrupulous fanaticism.

Our victory, however, is but half completed. We hold the victory gained, but we have not yet reclaimed in November the threatened liberties of our country, and restore to it the peace and prosperity of former times.

We conjure you, then, by all that freedom holds dear, to rally once more for a final struggle! Ours is now! Shake off the creeping gnat which comes after a successful contest, and let us build from power the insolent contempt of the people's rights, overthrowing at the same time the hand of public plunderers which follow in their train.

By order of the Committee:

C. L. WARD, Chairman.

ROBERT J. HENNING, Secretary.

THE RESULT IN THE COUNTY.

The Abolitionists never made a more active or desperate fight than they did to carry the county on last Tuesday. They had meetings in every "hole and corner," their speakers were everywhere—their emissaries approached every voter they thought to be approachable. They were lavish with their money—as lavish as with their deceptive falsehoods and malignant denunciations. The Democratic candidates they stigmatized as copperheads and traitors, and stopped at no lie, however gross, to damage them in public estimation. But all to no purpose. The conservative element stood firm—adhered to the cause of the country with unswerving steadfastness, and the Democratic ticket came out of the heat and smoke of the contest with magnificent majorities—that for General Coffroth being 4111. All honor to the gallant Democracy of Adams. Now, one effort more for Little Mac! Let us swell our majority for the hero of Antietam to 6000! We can do it—we will do it!

THE ASSESSMENTS.

Some voters in the army and at home were not assessed so as to vote last Tuesday's election. The new Assessors will get their duplicates to-morrow and Wednesday. Have the assessments made to them, and pay the necessary tax to the old Collectors, who will hold over some weeks yet. Also send the soldiers electoral tickets at once, and again next week, as many may not receive the first. We learn that many of the soldiers did not get Democratic tickets for the October election. Let this point occur again. Send McClellan electoral tickets to all.

The Republicans were meeting on Saturday week, in a war, a fray, notwithstanding the warning of three sets of handbills to arouse the faithful, and the use of every other means to attract a large crowd, but a few hundred assembled when this day came. A stand for the speaking was erected in the diamond, but the managers soon saw that but a sorry show would be made there. They therefore determined to hold the meeting in the Court room, and it was held there. All got in, and there might have been accommodation. This tells the whole story as to numbers. A procession of vehicles was formed before the speaking commenced. It was just a square and a half in length, numbering many vehicles, including a large proportion of buggies, the number of persons being very few. These are the numbers known to everybody who took the trouble to count for himself. Dr. Dagobert, who didn't get the office he wanted, went over to the Abolitionists, and was the only speaker; and, as such renegade generally, he dealt largely in abuse of the party, which a few years ago he pretended to be a true J. B. Panner.

THE GREAT MASS MEETING.

OUTPOURING OF THE DEMOCRACY OF ADAMS!

UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM!

Immense Procession, Big Teams, Flags, Banners, Music, &c.

SPEECHES IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.

The Democratic Mass Meeting in Gettysburg on Monday last, was one of the largest political demonstrations ever had here—never surpassed, and not equaled since 1844. But a few days' notice was given, reaching some sections of the county only on Saturday previous. Still, when Monday came, the conservative citizens flocked in by thousands, giving the town the appearance of one vast meeting all over it. People everywhere—cheers everywhere—enthusiasm everywhere! Many of our Democratic citizens had their houses decorated with evergreens and flowers, and the "stars and stripes" greeted the eye on all sides.

By 10 o'clock, the magnificent Band Chariot owned by the Democratic party was brought out, drawn by four grey horses, and containing an excellent band of martial music, with a number of banners having upon them a variety of pointed inscriptions. The Marshals were also on hand—J. H. White, Esq., Chief Marshal, in yellow rags; Dr. J. A. Swope, Capt. W. J. Martin, Sheriff Robert and Jeremiah Diehl, Assistants, in blue patches.

The alt commenced. Our friends from the country were coming in on horseback and in light vehicles, all promising handsome delegations from their respective neighborhoods—and these promises were fully realized. Presently, a movement out Baltimore street attracted attention. Delegations from lower Cumberland, Freedom and Mountjoy were approaching in a body—on big teams having from four to twelve horses, the wagons decorated with hickory trees, flags and wreaths, and crowded with people, one of them occupied with ladies, who made the air vocal with patriotic McClellan songs. This started the enthusiasm—the wildest cheers went up from that time on throughout the day. The delegation was halted at the diamond. Next came delegations from Marsh Creek, Highland, Hamiltonian and Liberty—having big teams also, from a dozen horses down to the wagons having plenty of hickories, and crowded with as lively a set of Democrats as ever sprung to cheer. Then came a part of the Lower End—Germany, Littlestown, Union, Mountpleasant and Conowingo—big teams again, big trees, and all the other decorations—beside a splendid Brass Band from Woodstock! All was enthusiasm from one end of the line to the other.

Next in order came the street had its display. Franklin approached with a team of twenty-six horses, another of sixteen, with a number of four and sixes, Butler had a team of, we believe, twelve greys, with others; Menallen had several teams, Christopher Rice's magnificent bell team, of course, among them; Strahan had any quantity of teams; Reading was out in Jerry, too; whilst all, with Tyrone and other townships, contributed a large number of turn-outs, all grandly decorated, and several containing nothing but ladies. The welkin rang again and again with enthusiastic cheers, the mere mention of the name of Little Mac being everywhere a sufficient signal. Oxford, Hamilton, and the Berwicks, were also well represented; many of their citizens coming in the cars.

The grand procession was then formed, and with the admirable management of the Marshals, the confusion so common with the movement of such large bodies, was entirely avoided. The route of procession was—down York street to lower end, across to Middle street, up Middle to Baltimore, out Baltimore to Emmisburg road, out road to Washington street, down Washington to Chambersburg street, and up Chambersburg to the diamond. The procession was an immense affair, probably a mile and a half in length—the whole creating a scene so inspiring as to make every Democrat "feel good," and strike terror into the opposition, who could not fail to see in this expression of sentiment that power and office were about to slip from their grasp.

A spacious stand, decorated with flags and wreaths, was erected in front of the Court-house. At about 2 o'clock, the Woodstock Band marched to the stand and discoursed several patriotic airs in an effective manner; after which H. J. Stable called the vast assemblage to order, and proposed the following gentlemen as officers of the meeting:

President,

Hon. MOSES MCLEAN.

Col. J. J. Kuhn, Thomas N. Dick, Jacob Miller, Emanuel Neidich, Jacob L. Gray, John Buff, John H. Myers, Joseph L. Shorb, Daniel Geiselman, J. E. Smith, Samuel Shorb, Isaac Lightner, Levi Golden, Michael Neel, Joseph Arns, George Bushman, Francis Bream, Jacob Lett, Henry Wertz, Abraham Hoffman, Joseph Delone, Henry Rice, Jacob Brown, George Feiler, Jesse P. Topper, Jephtha Duns, Isaac Herer, Francis J. Wilson, Francis M. Biddy, Samuel Swoeinger, Philip Hann, Philip Donohue, John F. Felty, Henry A. Picking, John Bushman, Hon. W. McSherry, Dr. E. P. Shorb, Jacob Klunk, H. J. Myers, Esq., Jacob C. Pittenger, Samuel Schwartz, John Rahn, Amos Leifer, Zachariah Myers, Robert Watson, Capt. E. Diehl, Samuel Bucher, John Raffensperger, Jacob Diehl, Samuel Swope, George Ludy, H. J. Brinkendorf, Wm. Rider, Washington Greenholts, Richard Fitzgerald, Solomon Orner, Amos Schlosser, Wm. Overlander, Jacob Schaeffer, W. Ross White, J. Scott Wilson, H. D. Wattles, George Swope, Hon. D. Ziegler, Dr. John Bunkel, Frederick Herr, Nicholas Codori, John Wagle, Edward Muechy.

Secretaries,

F. N. W. Bowers, Thomas G. Neely, Robert M. Dicks, Joseph Spangler, S. A. Smith, Reuben Golden, Cornelius Daugherty, Abraham Fisher, Henry Bream, Samuel Hart, Capt. J. M. Plunk, H. J. Hamler, Edward Shorb, Daniel Lawrence, John L. Jenkins, Joseph Wolf, C. M. Swope, Charles Beales, James Correy, J. W. Lett, Josiah W. Brown, Michael M. Miller, J. C. Myers.

Mr. McLean, upon taking the Chair, made a brief but able speech, when he introduced Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, of Chambersburg. We would do him injustice to attempt even a sketch of his remarks. Suffice it to say that it was a logical, clear, convincing, and unanswerable effort—every word going home to the hearts and minds of the people, and at frequent intervals eliciting rounds of applause. He was followed by John Gibson, Esq. of York, who also made a very fine speech—sound, eloquent and telling, as the hearty cheers of the multitude often attested. W. A. Stable, of York, concluded the speaking, in German. He seemed to please his hearers very much, as they frequently cheered him, and when about to conclude were loud and unanimous in their calls to "go on." We tender to the speakers the warm thanks of the gallant Democracy of Little Adams.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The meeting adjourned with three rounds of cheers for McClellan, Pendleton, and the whole Democratic ticket. The demonstration will long be remembered and spoken of as the "Big Meeting of 1864," and all present will be proud to claim a share in it.

Great credit is due to the Democrats throughout the county for their active efforts in making the meeting what it was. Its success went far towards paying them for their labors, and we doubt not that all were pleased with what they did. The cause is a good one, and we cannot do too much for it.

MEETING AT FAIRFIELD.

The Democratic meeting at Fairfield on Friday evening week was very large—the largest held there for years. The officers were:

President, John Githrich.

Vice Presidents, W. Ross White, Esq., Jesse P. Topper, George C. Crass, Robert McGlaughlin, Andrew Sanders, John Watson, Wm. Reed, Bury Bigham.

Secretaries, James Correy, B. J. Reed, Isaac Herer, Wm. O'Brien, John Saunders.

Able speeches were made by W. A. Duncan and E. B. Buehler, Esq., when the meeting adjourned with cheers for Mac and Pen.

MEETING AT HUNTERSTOWN.

On the same evening, the Strahan Club, with many others, met at Grass's, in Hunterstown. It was a spirited rally. J. C. Neely and Wm. McClean, Esqs., made telling speeches, when the meeting adjourned with cheers for the Democratic candidates.

MEETING AT MIDDLETOWN.

The Butler Club, with delegations from Franklin and Menallen, met at Middleton, on the same evening. J. H. White, Esq., and Geo. A. Codori, made speeches, which were frequently cheered, when the meeting adjourned in fine spirits.

MEETING AT WILLOW GROVE.

Cumberland Club had a spirited meeting at Willow Grove School-house on Friday evening also. A beautiful stand, decorated with evergreens and flowers, was erected in front of the School-house. To the McClellan ladies of the neighborhood much credit is due for their industry and taste in this matter, as well as for their delightful singing on the occasion. H. J. Stable, Dr. J. A. Swope and Jacob Lett made speeches, when the meeting adjourned with hearty cheers for the Democratic standard bearers.

MEETING AT MOUNT ROCK.

The meeting at Mount Rock on Saturday evening week was a rouser. There were four or five hundred people in attendance. A procession was formed, which, with transparencies and music, made a very fine display. The meeting was organized as follows:

President, Peter Smith, Esq.

Vice Presidents, W. H. Lett, Esq., H. J. Kuhn, Richard Adams, Daniel Geiselman, Richard Harnish, Joseph L. Shorb, John Lett, Capt. Thomas H. Brail, Samuel Shorb, Capt. Jacob E. Miller, Capt. Wm. Brungner, Wm. A. McSherry, Lewis Will, Pius S. Smith, Levi Lawrence, Francis Polkman, Wm. Rider.

Secretaries, J. E. Smith, Wm. Dutcher, J. P. X. Smith, Daniel Lawrence, Jacob Neidinger, Wm. Adams.

Speeches were made by H. J. Stable, J. H. White, Esq., Edw. Reilly and J. D. Newman. The proceedings were throughout enthusiastic, and graced by the presence of the Democratic ladies of the vicinity.

THE McCLELLAN CLUB OF MOUNT PLEASANT.

has fully organized, as follows: President, Matthew H. Timmins; Vice Presidents, Samuel Shorb, Samuel A. Smith; Recording Secretary, Charles H. Hemler; Corresponding Secretary, J. E. Smith; Treasurer, Daniel Lawrence.

MEETING AT SEVEN STAPS.

A spirited Democratic meeting came off at Seven Stars, in Franklin township, on the same evening. The officers were:

President, Maj. Samuel Loehr.

Vice Presidents, George Ludy, Wm. Lett, J. D. Smith, Esq., Lewis Will, Esq., Hooper, Elias Hartman, Samuel Hart, Robert McClellan, Lewis Carbaugh.

Secretaries, Adam Bucher, Daniel Seitz, J. W. Lett, J. H. Stable, George Seitz, Abraham Hart, Jr., Henry Hershey, Andrew Thomas, Jr.

The meeting was addressed by Jacob Lett and E. W. Stable, and their remarks were received with many cheers.

MEETING AT CORWELLS.

On Monday evening, Buchanan Valley and the Upper End turned out in goodly numbers to Corwells. The following gentlemen were the officers of the meeting:

President, John Cole.

Vice Presidents, A. Noel, Robert Block, John McKeenrick, Peter Adams, George Kent, Capt. C. Thomas, Martin Carbaugh, Wm. Kane, Henry Shultz.

Secretaries, Peter Morris, Joseph F. Warner, James Irwin, Isaac H. Lauver, Joseph Saylor.

Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, of Chambersburg, made a very convincing speech; J. C. Neely, Esq., Geo. A. Codori and H. J. Stable followed, when the meeting adjourned with cheers for Mac and Pen. A large stand, with evergreens and flowers in front, and an American flag overhanging it, was one of the features of the meeting, which was in all respects a decided success.

Let all who have friends in the army, send them McClellan Electoral tickets without a day's delay. Tickets can be had at this office for the purpose. We also print out in this morning's Compiler, which may be sent out and sent in letters. The whole paper should be forwarded where it can be spared. McClellan's star is bright—day dawn. Let all work—the stake is great. Our country is in the balance. One effort more, and the day is ours!

Hon. J. Scott Harrison, a son of Ex-President Harrison, has come out for McClellan.

Hon. Edward Stanley, of California, formerly Military Governor of North Carolina, has published a letter favoring Gen. McClellan, and opposing the emancipation policy of Lincoln's administration. This is a heavy blow at old Abe.

No war news of moment last week.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The Smoke of the Battle Clearing Away!

The Result in Pennsylvania.

The Democracy Victorious!

Immense Democratic Gains!

Reported Democratic Gain of Four Congressmen and Three State Senators!

The State Senate Democratic!

Democratic Majority on the Popular Vote 5,000!

The Old Keystone Redeemed, and Firm in the Line for McClellan and Pendleton!

Ohio and Indiana Coming, Too!

Sixty Thousand Democratic Gain in Ohio, and Seven Thousand in Indiana!

The Hero Antietam and the Buckeye Boy Nobly Sustained by the Democratic and Conservative Freemen of the Country!

[From the Age of Friday.]

As the news comes slowly in from the interior, the evidence of the great victory achieved by the Pennsylvania Democracy becomes more apparent. In our issue yesterday, we claimed the State on the popular vote by a majority of from four to five thousand votes. This was based upon the knowledge that in 41 counties, we had gained 13,000 votes since the last election, leaving 25 counties to be heard from. Since then we have heard from all the counties, in which we have gained over twenty thousand. Notwithstanding these known and admitted facts, every one of which is in the possession of the Abolition journals, they will falsely claim an Abolition majority on the popular vote, and still continue to vilify and wickedly deceive the people. The Democracy have carried the State by about 5,000 majority—they have gained over 20,000 votes since last October—they have gained four members of Congress—and there is every reason to believe that they have defeated their Abolition Congressional State-Senators, Leavelle, H. Hall and Kirk Hainer, in the Blair and Huntingdon District, and Charles H. Shreiner, in the Union and Snyder District, which, if verified, will give us a majority in the House of Representatives for several years. Let our Democratic brethren, everywhere, be of good cheer! We have not and gloriously vanquished the enemy in Pennsylvania. THE OLD KEYSTONE IS SAFE FOR McCLELLAN AND PENDLETON. BY 30,000 MAJORITY!

In Ohio the Abolition majority of last year has been greatly reduced. The Democracy have gained 60,000. This magnificent result will fill the heart of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution with joy. The Buckeye State will cast an enormous vote for McClellan and Pendleton. The Democracy of Indiana have fought a good fight. The Abolitionists, with that peculiar industry which characterizes them in manufacturing figures and returns, announce that they have swept the State, and claim a fabulous victory. This is untrue. Yesterday we received a special telegram from reliable parties in Indianapolis, which gives the following result:

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12, 1864.—We have elected Voorhees and Ellard to Congress. There is a Democratic majority of four in the State Senate, and probably a Democratic majority in the House. The Abolition claim Morton's election as Governor by 5,000 majority, but we are awaiting further figures. Immense frauds were perpetrated upon us throughout the State. Indiana is good for McClellan and Pendleton in November.

Last year the Abolitionists carried the State by 12,000 majority. The result this year, by taking the Abolition figures, shows a Democratic gain of 7,000 votes. Indiana has done nobly. The most strenuous efforts were made by the Abolitionists to carry the State, but they have not been successful, and have lost a grander triumph. In every county, township, and village, in the crowded city and secluded hamlet, on your iron hills, and amid your green valleys, lift up the old flag of the Union and the Constitution, and march proudly on, until you have won again. We hope forever, vanquished the enemies of your suffering and bleeding country—Spare no labor! Cease no exertion! Give every day and night to the cause! Keep your arms and feet firm in your unyielding lines! Marshal on your unconquerable legions! And let your battle cry be, McCLELLAN, PENDLETON and the UNION!

THE ELECTION NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

THE RESULT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The administration officials here feel very sore over the result of the vote in Pennsylvania. They had been led to believe, after the immense sums of money spent, and the peculiar influences that were brought to bear, that the Keystone State would give a decided Republican majority. The fact that, in spite of these exertions, it has gone Democratic, fills the office-holders with the greatest alarm, and in their wrath, they have fallen to abusing each other. It is now charged that Cameron pocketed the money that was furnished him to carry the doubtful congressional districts. For this he is supposed to feel very bad over the result, as he was immensely disgusted when Cameron was chosen to be the Liberator of the funds instead of himself. The War Department people are very bitter against Governor Curtin, whom they charge with treachery. They say that the governor was defeated, because he had not been made minister to Russia, and they say that, although his health was not good enough to make speeches in favor of the Republican ticket, he was sufficiently well to help the opponents of the administration privately.

THE RESULT IN OHIO AND INDIANA.

The private dispatches from Ohio and Indiana, received by the government officials here, do not seem to denote a very cheerful state of feeling. It is believed here that when the facts are allowed to be made known, it will be found that the Democrats have gained heavily in both those states,

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

North, Oct. 11, 1864.

Perry, 293

Washington, 214

Philadelphia, 86

Potter, 600

Schuykill, 1600

Somerset, 171

Snyder, 138

Spencer, 454

Stark, 1000

Susquehanna, 200

Tioga, 423

Union, 423

Wayne, 900

Warren, 98

Westmoreland, 57

York, 219

York, 2800

Democratic majority in Pennsylvania, 5,515

Abolition majority in 1863, 15,325

Democratic gain in the State, 20,840

Majorities for Congress.

Gen. Coffroth, Dem., Elected!

Coffroth, D. Kuntz, A.

Adams, 411

Bedford, 600

Franklin, 600

Fulton, 250

Somerset, 771

Coffroth's majority, 750

Abolition majority in 1863, 750

Democratic gain in 15th district, 1479

[From the Age of Thursday.]

THE CONTEST—THE RESULT—THE VICTORY.

After the smoke of Tuesday's battle has, in some degree, cleared away, we are enabled to look calmly over the field, and give the result of the great contest in Pennsylvania. In our issue yesterday we announced that, if the Democracy were to carry the contest to be heard from equalled those received up to the hour of going to press, the Democracy would have a decided majority on the home vote. This prediction has been gloriously verified. Throughout the entire State, we have made such tremendous gains as to enable us now to say with certainty, that the people of Pennsylvania are true to the Union and the Constitution, and that the DEMOCRACY HAVE WON. CUFFROTH'S MAJORITY OF SEVEN THOUSAND AND CARRIED THE STATE ON THE POPULAR VOTE, BY A MAJORITY OF FROM FOUR TO FIVE THOUSAND. A DEMOCRATIC GAIN OF TWENTY THOUSAND VOTES SINCE LAST OCTOBER! This result will fill our Democratic brethren throughout the Union, with joy and gladness. It renders the old Keystone safe for McClellan and Pendleton. It will give the heart of every freeman in this Commonwealth, who values his own and his country's safety, to enter the Presidential contest with a sure and abiding hope that the cause of truth and justice will triumph in November. Already are the great efforts of our brave Democracy being made apparent. The Democracy are jubilant. Joy beams upon every countenance. Every man feels the deep conviction of a renewed existence, that an unimpaired triumph always exists. There is no one who does not now feel that the Democratic cause is the cause of the heart's core. Proudly, grandly, the old Keystone looks up in the darkness that Abolitionism has thrown over the land, and to-day she stands forth redeemed, regenerated, and at last united with the four great States of the Union that ever carried a once free and happy nation.

The vote on Tuesday last was a terrible rebuke to Mr. Lincoln and his satellites. It has crushed the hopes of the Abolitionists, and it has shown the people that such a result would be obtained. They never, for one moment, supposed their fate had been sealed by the honest and hardy yeomanry of our glorious old Commonwealth. In the midst of their defeat, the heart of every true citizen in the bright moment of their anticipated triumph—they have been struck dumb by the fearful handwriting on the wall, and read their doom in the inevitable decree that they have been weighed and found wanting. They spent hundreds of thousands of dollars, they denounced as "disloyal," all who would not bend the knee to the brazen image they set up for the people to worship. They made the issue bold and defiant, and stood all the time of the election on the platform of "no compromise with the traitors of the State in November on the result of Tuesday's contest. They everywhere proclaimed that a defeat on that day would be a certain defeat in the Presidential election. The Democracy accepted the game of battle, and gloriously triumphed. "Not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with glory and glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted Conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before, but who, seeing the danger, and the imperiled country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above their heads, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no hour to them! They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with glory and glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted Conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before, but who, seeing the danger, and the imperiled country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above their heads, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no hour to them! They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with glory and glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted Conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before, but who, seeing the danger, and the imperiled country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above their heads, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no hour to them! They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with glory and glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted Conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before, but who, seeing the danger, and the imperiled country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above their heads, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no hour to them! They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with glory and glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted Conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before, but who, seeing the danger, and the imperiled country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above their heads, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no hour to them! They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They own printing, neatly and cheaply. Adapted to the printing of handbills, billboards, circulars, labels, cards and small newspapers. All instructions accompany each office calling a few years old to work them requiring little. Circulars sent free. Specimen sheets of type, Cut, etc., 6 cents.

Address ADAMS PRESS CO.,
31 Park Row, N. Y., and 35 Lincoln Street,
Boston, Mass.

January 25, 1894. Y.

Albums!

ALBUMS!!!

Just received a large and beautiful assortment of Photographic Albums, which I will offer at a low price.

TYSON BROTHERS,
Dec. 14, 1892.

UNDER-PRESSERS AND APPLE-PRESSERS
for sale by SHREADS & BUEHLER

H. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.
GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, OCT. 17, 1864.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL NOMINATIONS.

For President,
MAJOR GENERAL
GEO. BRINTON MCCLELLAN,
OF NEW JERSEY.

For Vice President,
GEORGE H. PENDLETON,
OF OHIO.

ELECTORS.

ROBERT L. JOHNSTON,
RICHARD VAUX,
WILLIAM LOUGHEIN,
EDWARD R. HELMBOLD,
EDWARD P. DUNN,
THOMAS MCGULLOUGH,
EDWARD T. HESS,
PHILIP S. GERHARD,
GEORGE G. LEIPER,
MICHAEL SEITZER,
PATRICK McVOY,
THOMAS H. WALKER,
OLIVER S. DUNNICK,
ABRAM B. DUNNING,
PAUL LEIDY,
ROBERT SWINEFORD,
JOHN ARL,
GEORGE A. SMITH,
THADDEUS BANKS,
HUGH MONTGOMERY,
JOHN M. IRVINE,
JOSEPH M. THOMPSON,
EUSEBIUS BROWN,
JAMES P. BARR,
WILLIAM J. KOUNTZ,
WILLIAM MONTGOMERY.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF PENNSYLVANIA.

HOUSE OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION,
214 N. SECOND ST.,
PHILADELPHIA, October 13, 1864.

Returns from the elections held on Tuesday last have come to hand, sufficient to prove beyond question, that we have triumphed in the election of the State Convention, the votes of the soldiers in the hospitals, and in the army, may or may not, reduce this aggregate.

We congratulate you on this glorious result! All honor to the noble and faithful men who have achieved such a victory, in spite of the ironical sneers, the scorn, and of mockery, and the distance of a kind and unrelenting fanaticism!

Our victory, however, is but half completed. We hold the victory ground so gloriously obtained, only for one grand movement more—to reclaim in November the threatened liberties of our country, and restore to it the peace and prosperity of former times.

We conjure you, then, by all that freedom hold dear, to rally once more for a final struggle! Organize anew! Shake off the creeping apathy which comes after a successful contest; and let us hail from the in-lane contentment of the people's rights, overthrowing at the same time the hand of public plunder which follows in their train.

By order of the Committee:
C. L. WARD, Chairman.
ROBERT J. HENDERSON, Secretary.

THE RESULT IN THE COUNTY.

The Abolitionists never made a more active or desperate fight than they did to carry the county on last Tuesday. They had meetings in every "hole and corner"—their speakers were everywhere—their emissaries approached every voter they thought to be approachable. They were lavish with their money—as lavish as with their deceptive falsehoods and malignant denunciations. The Democratic candidates they stigmatized as copperheads and traitors, and stopped at no lie, however gross, to damage them in public estimation. But all to no purpose. The conservative element stood firm—adhered to the cause of the country with unswerving steadfastness; and the Democratic ticket comes out of the heat and smoke of the contest with magnificent majorities—that for General Coffroth being 411! All honor to the gallant Democracy of Adams. Now, one effort more for Little Mac! Let us swell our majority for the hero of Antietam to 600! We can do it—we will do it!

THE ASSESSMENTS.

Some voters in the army and at home were not assessed so as to vote at last Tuesday's election. The new Assessors will get their duplicates to-morrow and Wednesday. Have the assessments made with them, and pay the necessary tax to the old Collectors, who will hold over some weeks yet. Also, send the soldiers' electoral tickets at once, and again next week, as many may not receive the first. We learn that many of the soldiers did not get Democratic tickets for the October election. Let this go occur again. Send McClellan electoral tickets to all.

The Republican mass meeting on Saturday week was, in a word, a farce. Notwithstanding the issuing of three sets of pamphlets to arouse the faithful, and the use of every other means to attract a large crowd, but a few hundred assembled when the day came. A stand for the speaking was erected in the Diamond, but the managers soon saw that but a sorry show would be made there. They therefore determined to hold the meeting in the Court room, and it was held there. All got in, and there might have been accommodated. This tells the whole story as to numbers. A procession of vehicles was formed before the speaking commenced. It was just a square and a half in length, numbering many vehicles, including a large proportion of buggies—the number of persons in the vehicles being ninety-four! These are facts known to everybody who took the trouble to count for himself. Dan Daugherty, who didn't get the office he wanted from President Buchanan, and therefore went over to the Abolitionists, was the only speaker; and, as such renegades generally do, dealt largely in abuse of the party to which a few years ago he pretended to be true. J. B. Danner presided,

THE GREAT MASS MEETING!

OUTPOURING OF THE DEMOCRACY OF ADAMS!

UNBOUNDED ENTHUSIASM!

Immense Procession, Big Teams, Flags, Banners, Music, &c.

SPEECHES IN ENGLISH AND GERMAN.

The Democratic Mass Meeting in Gettysburg on Monday last, was one of the largest political demonstrations ever had here—never surpassed, and not equaled since 1844. But a few days' notice was given, reaching some sections of the county only on Sunday previous. Still, when Monday came, the conservative citizens flocked in by thousands, giving the town the appearance of one vast meeting all over it. People everywhere—cheers everywhere—enthusiasm everywhere! Many of our Democratic citizens had their houses decorated with evergreens and flowers, and the "stars and stripes" greeted the eye on all sides.

By 10 o'clock, the magnificent Band Chariot owned by the Democratic party was brought out, drawn by four grey horses, and containing an excellent band of martial music, with a number of banners having upon them a variety of pointed inscriptions. The Marshals were also on hand—J. H. White, Esq., Chief Marshal, in yellow sash; Dr. J. A. Swope, Capt. W. J. Martin, Sheriff Hertz and Jeremiah Diehl, Assistants, in blue sashes.

The air commenced. Our friends from the country were coming in on horseback and in light vehicles, all promising handsome delegations from their respective neighborhoods—and these promises were fully realized. Presently, a movement out Baltimore street attracted attention. Delegations from lower Cumberland, Freedom and Mountjoy were approaching in a body—on big teams having from four to twelve horses, the wagons decorated with hickory trees, flags and wreaths, and crammed with people, one of them occupied with ladies, who made the air vocal with patriotic McClellan songs. This started the enthusiasm—the wildest cheers went up from that time on throughout the day. The delegation was halted at the Diamond. Next came delegations from Marsh creek, Highland, Hamiltonian and Liberty—having big teams also, from a dozen horses down—the wagons having plenty of hickories, and crowded with as lively a set of Democrats as ever sang or cheered. Then came a part of the Lower End—Germany, Littlestown, Union, Mountpleasant and Conowingo—big teams again, big trees, and all the other decorations—beside a splendid Brass Band from Woodbury.

All was enthusiasm from one end of the line to the other. Next in order Cambridge street had its display. Franklin approached with a team of twenty-six horses, another of sixteen, with a number of flags and sixes, Butler had a team of, we believe, twelve greys, with others; Menallen had several teams, Christopher Rice's magnificent bell team, of course, among them; Strahan had any quantity of teams; Reading was out in large glory, too; whilst all, with Tyrone and other townships, contributed a large number of teams also, all grandly decorated, and several containing nothing but ladies. The welkin rang again and again with enthusiastic cheers, the more mention of the name of Little Mac being everywhere a sufficient signal. Oxford, Hamilton, and the Berwicks, were also well represented, many of their citizens coming in the cars.

The grand procession was then formed, and with the admirable management of the Marshals, the confusion so common with the movement of such large bodies, was entirely avoided. The route of procession was—down York street to lower end, across to Middle street, up Middle to Baltimore, out Baltimore to Emmitsburg road, out road to Washington street, down Washington to Chambersburg street, and up Chambersburg to the Diamond. The procession was an immense affair, probably a mile and a half in length—the whole creating a scene so inspiring as to make every Democrat "feel good," and strike terror into the opposition, who could not fail to see in this expression of sentiment that power and office were about to slip from their grasp.

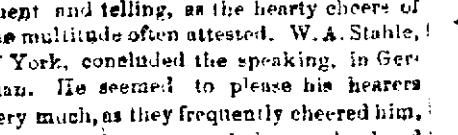

A spacious stand, decorated with flags and wreaths, was erected in front of the Court-house. At about 2 o'clock, the Woodbury Band marched to the stand and discoursed several patriotic airs in an effective manner; after which H. J. Stable called the vast assemblage to order, and proposed the following gentlemen as officers of the meeting:

President,
Hon. MOSES McCLELLAN.
Vice Presidents,
Col. J. Kuhn, Thomas N. Dicks, Jacob Miller, Emanuel Neidich, Jacob L. Grass, John Buff, John H. Myers, Joseph L. Shorb, Daniel Geismann, J. E. Smith, Samuel Shorb, Isaac Lightner, Levi Golden, Michael Fisel, Joseph Aratz, George Bushman, Abraham Bream, Jacob Lott, Henry Wertz, Abraham Hoffman, Joseph Deltone, Henry Rice, Jacob Brown, George Lott, Joseph P. Topp, John Duke, Isaac Herer, Francis J. Wilson, Francis M. Buddy, Samuel Schneider, Philip Hann, Philip Donohue, John F. Folly, Henry A. Picking, John Bushman, Hon. W. McSherry, Dr. E. P. Shorb, Jacob Klunk, H. J. Myers, Esq., Jacob C. Pittenfurt, Samuel Schwartz, John Rahn, Amos Lefever, Zechariah Myers, Robert Watson, Capt. F. Dahl, Samuel Brecher, John Redensperger, Jacob Eicholtz, Samuel Swope, George Lady, H. J. Brinkerhoff, Wm. Rider, Washington Greenholts, John L. Noel, Jesse Bucher, E. W. Stable, Richard Fitzgerald, Solomon Ormer, Amos Schlosser, Wm. Overbeer, Jacob Scheffer, Dr. Ross White, J. Scott Wilson, H. D. Rattler, George Swartz, C. H. Swope, Charles Boules, James Cowley, J. W. Lott, Josiah W. Brown, Michael M. Miller, J. J. Myers.

Mr. McClellan, upon taking the Chair, made a brief but able speech, when he introduced Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, of Chambersburg. We would do him injustice to attempt even a sketch of his remarks. Suffice it to say that it was a logical, clear, convincing, and unanswerable effort—every word going home to the hearts and minds of the people, and at frequent intervals eliciting rounds of applause. He was followed by John Gibson, Esq., of York, who also made a very fine speech—sound, eloquent and telling, as the hearty cheers of the multitude often attested. W. A. Stable, of York, concluded the speaking, in German. He seemed to please his hearers very much, as they frequently cheered him, and when about to conclude were loud and unanimous in their calls to "go on." We tender to the speakers the warm thanks of the gallant Democracy of Little Adams, and all present will be proud to claim a share in it.

Great credit is due to the Democrats throughout the county for their active efforts in making the meeting what it was. Its success went far towards paying them for their labor, and we doubt not that all were pleased with what they did. The cause is a good one, and we cannot do too much for it.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

The Smoke of the Battle Clearing Away!

The Result in Pennsylvania.

The Democracy Victorious!

Immense Democratic Gains!

Reported Democratic Gain of Four Congressmen and Three State Senators!

The State Senate Democratic!

Democratic Majority on the Popular Vote 5,000!

The Old Keystone Redeemed, and Firm in the Line for McClellan and Pendleton!

Ohio and Indiana Coming, Too!

Sixty Thousand Democratic Gain in Ohio, and Seven Thousand in Indiana!

The Hero of Antietam and the Buckeye Boy Nobly Sustained by the Democratic and Conservative Freemen of the Country!

[From the Age of Thursday.]

As the news comes slowly in from the interior, the evidence of the great victory achieved by the Pennsylvania Democracy becomes more apparent. In our issue yesterday, we claimed the State on the popular vote by a majority of from four to five thousand votes. This was based upon the knowledge that, in 41 counties, we had gained 12,000 votes since the last election, leaving 25 counties to be heard from. Since then we have heard from all the counties, in which we have gained over twenty thousand. Notwithstanding these known and admitted facts, every one of which is in the possession of the Abolition journals, they will falsely claim an Abolition majority on the popular vote, and still continue to willfully and wickedly deceive the people.

The Democracy have carried the State by about 5,000 majority. They have gained over 20,000 votes since last October—they have gained four members of Congress—and there is every reason to believe that they have defeated three Abolition Congressmen in State-Senators, Louis W. Hall and Kirk Haines, in the Blair and Huntingdon District, and Charles H. Streiner, in the Union and Snyder District, which, if carried, will give us a majority in the State Senate for the first time for several years. Let our Democratic brethren, everywhere, be of good cheer! We have met and gloriously vanquished the enemy in Pennsylvania! THE OLD KEYSTONE IS SAFE FOR McCLELLAN AND PENDLETON BY 30,000 MAJORITY!

In Ohio the Abolition majority of last year has been greatly reduced. The Democratic result will fill the heart of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution with joy. The Buckeye State will cast an enormous vote for McClellan and Pendleton. The Democracy of Indiana have fought a good fight. The Abolitionists, with that peculiar skill which characterizes them in manufacturing figures and tall tales, and a fabulous majority. This is a lie. Yesterday we received a special telegram from reliable parties in Indianapolis, which gives the following result:

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 13, 1864.—We have elected Voorhees and Hibbard to Congress. There is a Democratic majority of four in the State Senate, and probably a Democratic majority in the House. The Abolitionists claim Morton's election as Governor by 5,000 majority, but we are awaiting further news. Immense frauds were perpetrated upon us throughout the State. Indiana is good for McClellan and Pendleton in November.

MEETING AT SEVEN STARS.

A spirited Democratic meeting came off at Seven Stars, in Franklin township, on the same evening. The officers were:

President, M. J. Samuel Lohr.
Vice Presidents, George Lady, Wm. Settle, F. D. Smith, James E. Ross, Lewis Hooper, Elias Hartman, Samuel Hart, Robert McClellan, Lewis Carbaugh.
Secretaries, Adam Bucher, Daniel Settle, J. W. Lott, J. H. Stable, George Settle, William Hart, John Henry Hershey, Andrew Thomas, Jr.

The meeting was addressed by Jacob Lott and E. W. Stable, and their remarks were received with many cheers.

MEETING AT CORWELL'S.

On Monday evening, Buchanan Valley and the Upper End turned out in goodly numbers to Corwell's. The following gentlemen were the officers of the meeting:

President, John Cole.
Vice Presidents, A. Noel, Robert Blockney, John McKenrick, Peter Adams, George Cole, Capt. C. Thomas, Martin Catbaugh, Wm. Kane, Henry Schaefer.
Secretaries, Peter Moritz, Joseph F. Warner, James Irwin, Isaac H. Lauer, Joseph Saylor.
Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, of Chambersburg, made a very convincing speech; J. C. Neely, Esq., Geo. A. Codori and H. J. Stable followed, when the meeting adjourned with cheers for Mac and Pen. A large stand, with evergreens and flowers in front, and an American flag overhanging it, was one of the features of the meeting, which was in all respects a decided success.

Let all who have friends in the army, send them McClellan Electoral Tickets without a day's delay. Tickets can be had at this office for the purpose. We also print one in this morning's Compiler, which may be cut out and sent in letters. The whole paper should be forwarded where it can be spared. McClellan's star is bright-day dawns. Let all work—the stake is great. Our country is in the balance. One effort more, and the day is ours!

Hon. J. Scott Harrison, a son of Ex-President Harrison, has come out for McClellan.

Hon. Edward Stanley, of California, formerly Military Governor of North Carolina, has published a letter favoring Gen. McClellan, and opposing the emancipation policy of Lincoln's administration. This is a heavy blow at old Abe.

No war news of moment last week.

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

North Berlid, 1100	397
Perry, 2109	232
Pike, 914	80
Philadelphia, 6945	80
Potter, 600	251
Schenck, 1500	71
Somerest, 711	555
Snyder, 188	239
Saltsve, 454	100
Susquehanna, 1600	202
Tioga, 2309	181
Union, 421	343
Wayne, 160	250
Warren, 92	986
Washington, 47	200
Westmoreland, 179	613
York, 180	180
York, 2900	341
Democratic majority in Pennsylvania, 5,519
Abolition majority in 1863, 15,325
Democratic gain in the State, 20,840

MAJORITIES FOR CONGRESS.

Gen. Coffroth, Dem., Elected!

Corroth, D. Koonz, A.

Adams, 411
Bedford, 600
Franklin, 690
Fulton, 250
Somerset, 771

Coffroth's majority, 750
Abolition majority in 1863, 729
Democratic gain in 16th district, 1179

THE CONTEST—THE RESULT—THE VICTORY.

After the smoke of Tuesday's battle has, in some degree, cleared away, we are enabled to look calmly over the field, and give the result of the great contest in Pennsylvania. In our issue yesterday we announced, that, if the Democratic gains in the counties to be heard from equaled those reported up to the hour of going to press, the Democracy would have a decided majority on the home vote. That prediction has been gloriously verified. Throughout the entire State, we have made such tremendous gains as to enable us now to say with certainty, that the people of Pennsylvania are true to the Union and the Constitution, and that the Democracy have overcome the masses of rascals who have so long deceived the State on the popular vote, by a MAJORITY OF FROM FOUR TO FIVE THOUSAND. SHOWING A DEMOCRATIC GAIN OF TWENTY THOUSAND VOTES SINCE LAST OCTOBER! This result will fill our Democratic brethren, throughout the Union, with joy and gladness. It renders the old Keystone safe for McClellan and PENDLETON. It will never be forgotten by every citizen in this Commonwealth, who values his own and his country's safety, to enter the Presidential contest with a sure and abiding hope that the cause of truth and justice will triumph in November. A ready ear to the great efforts of our large local victory becoming apparent. The Democracy are jubilant. Joy beams upon every countenance. Every man feels that the day of retribution has come, and that an unrelenting triumph always exists. There is no one who does not now know that Pennsylvania is Democratic to the heart's core. Proudly, grandly, the old Keystone comes up in the darkness that Abolitionism has thrown over the land, and to-day she stands forth redeemed, regenerated, and disencumbered from the false religion of the worst party ever caused a once free and happy nation.

The vote on Tuesday last was a terrible rebuke to Mr. Lincoln and his satellites. It has crushed them to the dust. They claimed not that such a result would be obtained. They never, for one moment, supposed their fate had been sealed by the honest and brave men of our day. They were not deceived. In the midst of their joy—in the hour of their victory—in the bright moment of their anticipated triumph—they have been struck dumb by the fearful hand-writing on the wall, and read their doom in the inevitable decree that they have been weighed and found wanting. They spent hundreds of thousands of dollars. They denounced as rascals all who would not be led by the knee to the brazen image they set up for the people to worship. They made the issue boldly and defiantly, and staked all their hopes of carrying the State in November on the result of Tuesday's contest. They everywhere proclaimed that a defeat on that day would be a certain defeat in the Presidential struggle. The Democracy accepted the "game of battle and glorious triumph" with honor to them. They won a victory "not for a day, but for all time!" They have made a record for a nation to ponder upon and exult in. They have covered themselves with imperishable glory. But not to them alone is the credit due. There were thousands and tens of thousands of true-hearted conservative men in the State, who never acted with us before. They were the best and bravest of their country, rushed into the breach, and with the flag of the Union above them, aided in achieving this magnificent triumph. At no other time in the history of the United States, has there been such a grand and successful effort to achieve the greatest political victory that was ever gained in any State in the Union!

And now, Freemen of Pennsylvania, once more to the great work! You must not falter or waver in your march. You must rest upon your laurels. You must never yourselves for a better fight and a grander triumph. In every county, township, and village, in the crowded city and secluded hamlet, on your own hills, and amid your green valleys, lift up the old flag of the Union and the Constitution, and march proudly on, until you have vanquished the enemies of your suffering and bleeding country! Spare no labor! Use no exertion! Give every day and night to the cause! Keep on your armor! Stand firm in your unyielding lines! Marshal on your unquenchable legions! And let your battle cry be, McCLELLAN, PENDLETON and the UNION!

THE ELECTION NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.

The administration officials have been very sore over the result of the vote in Pennsylvania. They had been led to believe, after the immense sums of money spent and the peculiar influences which were brought to bear, that the Keystone State would give a decided Republican majority. The fact that, in spite of these exertions, it has given a Democratic majority, has caused them to fall into abusing each other. It is now charged that Cameron pocketed the money that was furnished him to carry the doubtful congressional districts. Forney is supposed not to feel very bad over the result, as he was immensely disgusted when Cameron was chosen to succeed him. The War Department people are very bitter against Governor Curtin, whom they charge with treachery. They say that the governor was disaffected, because he had not been made minister to Russia, and they say that, although his health was not good enough to make speeches in favor of the Republican ticket, he was sufficiently well to hold the opponents of the administration privately.

THE RESULT IN OHIO AND INDIANA.

The private dispatches from Ohio and Indiana, received by the government officials here, do not seem to denote a very cheerful state of feeling. It is believed here, that the result of the vote in those States, known to be found that the Democrats have gained heavily in both those States.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS.

The result of the elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, as well as the recent town vote in Connecticut, settles the question that the political tide is running heavily against the administration. All the gains are on the side of the Democratic party, and now that the current has fairly set in, it will move with accelerated force up to the time the November vote is taken. The present is a good time, therefore, to present some estimates of the probable result in several States when the Presidential vote is taken.

The whole number of votes in the electoral college (not counting Tennessee or Louisiana) is two hundred and thirty-one. To give a clear majority and elect a President, now, can General McClellan secure one hundred and sixteen votes? We think—may we are sure, he can and will! And we give the following estimates as the basis of the faith that is in us:

STATES CERTAIN TO VOTE FOR McCLELLAN.

California 5
Delaware 3
Illinois 16
Kentucky 11
Maryland 4
Minnesota 4

Total 53

But the administration may put a forcible stop to elections in Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland, and Delaware; so it becomes a question whether there are not some other States which will probably vote the Democratic ticket. That there are such will be seen by the following list:

STATES WHICH WILL PROBABLY VOTE FOR McCLELLAN.

Connecticut 5
Indiana 12
Michigan 8
New Hampshire 5
Total 30

STATES CERTAIN TO VOTE FOR LINCOLN.

Iowa 8
Kansas 8
Maine 7
Total 23

STATES WHICH MAY GO FOR LINCOLN.

Michigan 8
New Hampshire 5
West Virginia 5
Ohio 21
Total 41

It will thus be seen that if Lincoln carries the doubtful Republican States, as well as the certain Republican States, he will still fall short of carrying the State on the popular vote. It is easily demonstrable that the same percentage of increase of this fall's vote in Connecticut, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as compared with last year, will give all the States in November save those indicated above as being certain for Lincoln.

Although in all human probability General McClellan will be honestly elected President on the 8th of November next, still there is a large and no doubt, that Democrats cannot afford to concern the matter settled. All hands must turn to work with a will in the brief three weeks before us. Democratic speakers must be stirring, and conservative presses must multiply their issues. One earnest and determined effort will make the assurance of victory doubly sure. — N. Y. Tribune.

A DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH IN NEVADA TERRITORY.

The Shadow of Coming Events.
A telegram in dispatch, to a gentleman of this city, announced that at the election held in Nevada Territory, for the election of a State Constitution, and also for the choice of a delegate to Congress, the Democratic ticket was elected by some 1,200 majority. A. C. Bedford, Democrat, is the successful candidate. This is clearly indicative of a sure Democratic triumph in California and Oregon.

Indeed, we have information, by way of indirect letters, that forces as no more than the two States can now to reward the triumph of the Democracy, then we have of New Jersey on Pennsylvania. The dispatch from Nevada is an unquestionable reliable.

NEW JERSEY.

Democratic Victory and Union in Newark.
The Charter election took place in Newark on Tuesday, and owing to the large number of votes polled the canvassing was not completed until a late hour on Tuesday night. The Democrats have elected Mr. C. Bedford, for the coming year for commissioner, by a majority of 1,114. They also elected seven aldermen out of thirteen, together with those whose terms have not expired, which makes a common council stand Democrats 15, Abolitionists 10. With other officers that have been elected, it makes the Democratic majority 1,133, a gain on last year's vote of one hundred and eighty-six. This speaks well for Newark in the coming Presidential election.

CONNECTICUT!

The news from Connecticut is of the brightest and most encouraging character. In the teeth of the heaviest and most widespread corruption and fraud ever practiced—with the gigantic powers of the Government thrown with energy to defeat the Democratic party in the recent election, the patriotic Constitution in a Union-loving citizens of the State have rolled up everywhere vast and overwhelming majorities. In the great town of New Britain, the vote was certain for "Little Mac" and the Constitution of our fathers, by several thousand majority.

DELAWARE TOO!

From Delaware the news is glorious! We have carried every county in the State by an aggregate large majority. Last year the "Black Rascal" obtained 7,754 majority—the year we have over 1,440 majority!

LETTER FROM THE ARMY.

RIFLE FIRE IN FRONT OF PETERSBURG, 1 October 11, 1864.

Mr. STABLE—Dear Sir:—The closed election for Co. K, 13th P. V. Coffroth received 21 votes, Koonz 29; Marshall 13, Myers 29. At the November election we intend to reverse the vote, making it 29 for Little Mac. This is better than we expected, as the company was strongly Abolition when we started for the fight. Doing picket duty within forty yards of the rebel works is the best cure for Abolitionism I know of. I wish we had a few stay-at-home Loyal Leaguers here.

Yours respectfully,
Let the McClellan Clubs send Tickets to the Army. Where there are no Clubs, committees of Democrats must at once see to this.

The Abolitionists are to meet tonight, to make arrangements for a trip up Salt River.

The current has certainly set in against Lincoln. Keep up the fire, Democrats, and McClellan's election is sure.

All who are in favor of wiping out Abolitionism, and saving the country from ruin, will vote for McClellan.

Chief Justice Taney died at Washington on Wednesday night.

ADAMS COUNTY—OFFICIAL.

Whole Democratic Ticket Elected by Large Majorities!

The following is the vote polled in this county on Tuesday last, as taken from the official returns. It will be seen that the whole Democratic ticket is elected, by majorities ranging from 350 to 4181. The soldier vote may decrease these majorities somewhat, but not enough to endanger any of the Democratic candidates:

CONGRESS, ASSEMBLY & COMMISSIONER.

	Dem.	Rep.	Abol.	Other
Coffroth	158	162	250	162
Cumberland	122	116	133	114
Littlestown	144	118	155	155
Oxford	136	76	123	99
York Springs	185	141	185	370
Millstown	157	163	164	162
Berlin	158	163	163	163
Monahan	91	192	91	192
Hunterstown	163	163	163	163
Franklin	187	157	134	187
Conowingo	92	23	96	72
Hedersburg	95	91	91	74
Mountjoy	109	109	109	110
Mountpleasant	125	62	125	62
Hampton	119	13	140	139
Berwick town	21	26	27	22
Freedom	51	56	57	58
Union	134	46	152	134
Butler	126	122	125	123
Berwick twp.	51	10	68	51
Highland	31	46	31	46

DIRECTOR AND AUDITORS.

has been that if Lincoln carried Republican as well as the Republican States, he will still fall of the needed 115 votes.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote in Pennsylvania, and Ohio, as with last year, will give us all the November saws those indicated being certain for Lincoln.

It is not, however, the same sort of increase of this fall's vote

